

INTENSIVE COURSE

-Running from February to October-

QUICK FACTS

-Location: Portugal;

Duration: 1 or 2 weeks;

-Aimed at:

- Vet students
- Qualified Veterinarians

-Accommodation included

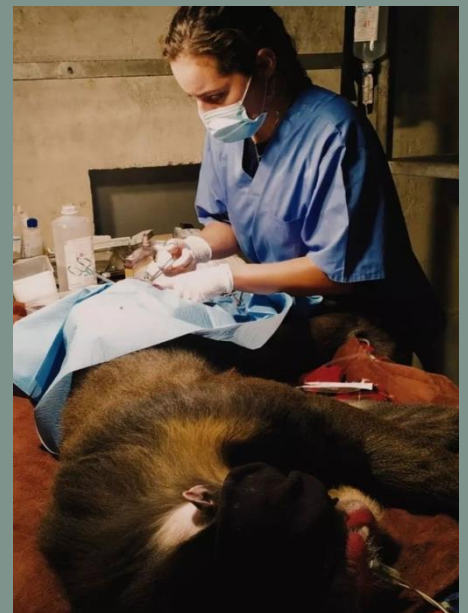

CONTENTS

-Theoretical lectures/open discussions about wildlife medicine, surgery and anesthesia with our team;

Transport of different animals, clinical research, animal husbandry, orphan care, practical experience with dart gun and other relevant devices;

Hands-on veterinarian assistance in wildlife chemical and/or physical immobilization, administration of the appropriate treatment and/or sanitary tests procedures;

Participation in a social media wildlife vets group to continue exchanging experiences.

PROGRAM

- Will vary according to the work and weather conditions.
- The practical contents of each course will be announced 4 weeks in advanced. Please contact us for more details.

LECTURES ON

- Wildlife Vs Zoo veterinary Medicine.
- Principles of capture and transport of wild animals.
- Anesthesia concepts and pharmacology.
- Safety of the operator and of animals involved.
- Different protocols for different occasions and animals.

PRACTICAL SIDE

- Planning and preparation of each procedure.
- Darting of several animals.
- Clinical exam, differential diagnosis and treatment of different species.
- Possibly transport from A to B

LOCATION

- Work at the local Safari Park.
- Visit different farms with wild animals from the North to the South of Portugal.
- Work at the local conservation centre with a variety of birds (Seagulls, Storks, Howls,..) and small wild mammals.

If you are interested or have any question don't hesitate to email us on:

ewvets@gmail.com

Or call Dr. Graça Oliveira directly on:

00351 911 570 565